

UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM
DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINOLOGY
FACULTY OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCES
UNIVERSITAS INDONESIA

COURSE SYLLABUS: BASICS PENOLOGY

Instructure(s) : 1)
2)
Credits : 3 credits
Meeting Times : 16 times

Course Description :

Penology is a course to foster students' ability to analyze perspectives, theories, and forms of legal punishment to contemporary developments, including in Indonesia. The lecture was delivered with student-centered methods using Small Group Discussion and Question-Based Learning. The course material consists of politics, theories, and forms of punishment. The language used in the learning process is Indonesian.

OUTLINE

Week	Topics	Reference	Learning Method
1	Limitation to Penology	Honderich, Ted. (2006.) Punishment: the supposed justifications revisited (p. 4). London: Pluto Press.	Lecture and Discussion
	Scope of Penology
	Relations between Penology and Criminology	Newburn, Tim. (2007). Criminology (p. 514). Devon: Willan Publishing.
	Limitation of Politics of Punishment	Sutherland, Edwin. (1992). Principles of Criminology (p. 302). New York: General Hill.
	Punishment and the Role of the State	Miethe, Terance D. & Hong Lu. (2005). Punishment: a comparative historical perspective (p. 194). Cambridge University Press. McBride, Keally. (2010). Punishment and Political Order (p. 103). The University of Michigan Press. Zaibert, Leo. (2006). Punishment and Retribution (p. 7). Ashgate

2	Backward Looking Theory	Honderich, Ted. (2006). Punishment: the supposed justifications revisited (p. 17). London: Pluto Press.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
	Utilitarian Prevention Theory
	Rehabilitation and Reformation Theory
3	Punishment and the Role of the State		Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
4	Corporal Punishment	Adams, Robert. (1998). The Abuse of Punishment (pp. 118; 149; 77; 99). London: Macmillan Press.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
	Capital Punishment (Death Penalty)
	Punishment by Physical Constraints and Punishment by Custody
	The Development of Correctional System
5	Moral Responsibility	Montague, Philip. 1995. Punishment as Societal-Defense (pp. 79; 109). Maryland: Rowman & Littlefield Publishers.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
	Proportionality Principle in Punishment
	Utilitarianism	Honderich, Ted. (2006). Punishment: the supposed justifications revisited (p. 58). London: Pluto Press. Grupp, Stanley E (ed). (1971). Theories of Punishment . Bloomington/London: Indiana University Press.
6	Humanitarianism	Honderich, Ted. (2006). Punishment: the supposed justifications revisited (pp. 195; 112). London: Pluto Press.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
	Disciplinary mechanism	Bagaric, Mirko. (2001). Punishment and Sentencing: a rational approach (p. 127). London: Cavendish Publishing Limited.
	Panopticon	Howe, Adrian. 1994. Punish and Critique: toward a feminist analysis of penalty (p. 67). London and New York: Routledge.
7	The Linkages between Retaliation, Moral Responsibility, and Proportionality to the Retributive Theory	Grupp, Stanley E (ed). (1971). Theories of Punishment . Bloomington/London: Indiana University Press. Montague, Philip. (1995). Punishment as Societal-Defense (pp. 79; 109). Maryland: Rowman & Littlefield Publishers.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
	The Linkages between Utilitarianism and Humanitarianism to Deterrence Theory	Honderich, Ted. (2006). Punishment: the supposed justifications revisited (p. 58). London: Pluto Press.
8	Midterm Exam

9	The Linkages between Utilitarianism and Humanitarianism to Rehabilitation and Reformation Theory	Honderich, Ted. (2006). Punishment: the supposed justifications revisited (pp. 195; 112). London: Pluto Press.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
	The Linkages between Disciplinary and Panopticon to Reformation Theory and Imprisonment	Bagaric, Mirko. (2001). Punishment and Sentencing: a rational approach (p. 127). London: Cavendish Publishing Limited. Howe, Adrian. 1994. Punish and Critique: toward a feminist analysis of penalty (p. 67). London and New York: Routledge.
10	Punishment Practices in United States of Amerika	Miethé, Terance D. & Hong Lu. (2005). Punishment: a comparative historical perspective (p. 82). Cambridge University Press.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
11	Punishment Practices in China	Miethé, Terance D. & Hong Lu. (2005). Punishment: a comparative historical perspective (p. 115). Cambridge University Press.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
12	Punishment Practices in Islamic States	Miethé, Terance D. & Hong Lu. (2005). Punishment: a comparative historical perspective (p. 155). Cambridge University Press.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
13	Punishment Practices in Indonesia	Dokumen Rapat Konferensi Kependidikan Indonesia, Lembang, 1964.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
14	The Paradox of Punishment by the State	Howe, Adrian. 1994. Punish and Critique: toward a feminist analysis of penalty (pp. 4; 135; 170). London and New York: Routledge.	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
	Feminism in the Theory of Punishment	Adams, Robert. 1998. The Abuse of Punishment (p. 182). London: Macmillan Press. Hirsch, Andrew Von, et.al. (ed). 2003. Restorative Justice and Criminal Justice: competing or reconcilable paradigm? (p. 1). Oxford: Hart Publishing. McConville, Sean (ed). (2003). The Use of Punishment (p. 199). Willan Publishing. Bennett, Christopher. (2008). The Apology Ritual: a philosophical theory of punishment (p. 13). Cambridge University Press. Arrigo, Bruce A dan Dragan Milovanovic. (2009). Revolution in Penology: rethinking the society of captives (pp. 3; 37). Lanham: Rowman & Littlefield Publisher

15	Restorative Justice in the Punishment Theory Peacemaking Criminology and Constitutive Penology	Howe, Adrian. 1994. Punish and Critique: toward a feminist analysis of penalty (pp. 4; 135; 170). London and New York: Routledge. Adams, Robert. 1998. The Abuse of Punishment (p. 182). London: Macmillan Press. Hirsch, Andrew Von, et.al. (ed). 2003. Restorative Justice and Criminal Justice: competing or reconcilable paradigm? (p. 1). Oxford: Hart Publishing. McConville, Sean (ed). (2003). The Use of Punishment (p. 199). Willan Publishing. Bennett, Christopher. (2008). The Apology Ritual: a philosophical theory of punishment (p. 13). Cambridge University Press. Arrigo, Bruce A dan Dragan Milovanovic. (2009). Revolution in Penology: rethinking the society of captives (pp. 3; 37). Lanham: Rowman & Littlefield Publisher	Individual/Group Presentation, Discussion, and Lecture
16	Final Exam		